

CAD celebrates Songkran Tradition:

Asking Blessing from Adults Ceremony

At the multi-purpose courtyard of the Cooperative Auditing Department (CAD), on the 11th April, 2011, the water pouring ceremony is held for asking blessing from commanders: ex-directors-general and ex-deputy-director-general and current Director-General to present staff's gratitude and for goodness. At the same time, CAD will conserve nice culture to exist forever.

In the morning, Mr. Singthong Chinnawornrungrsee, CAD's Director-General with administrators, government officials and its employees pay homage to the sacred things and the spirit house. Then, when the auspicious time comes, CAD's Director-General lights candles and incense-sticks to pay respect to the Triple Gems and pour water on the Buddha Image. After that, he presents a garland and a set of souvenir to the past CEOs, then he leads the water pouring ceremony.

In this regard, the CAD's staff including civil servants, government employees and employees ask blessing from the senior management both from the past and the present comprising Mr. Wanop Likhitwannakan, Mr. Chern Bamarungwong, Mr. Prayut Siribun, Mr. Anan Chamnankit, Mr. Chalong Bunyaphitaksakun, Mr. Charoen Srisaeng, Miss Rapeepat Angurarat, Miss Supatra Thanaseniwat and Mr. Singthong Chinnawornrungrsee.

At the end, Mr. Chern Bamrungwong, Ex-Director-General as the administrators' representative gives the blessing to all personnel for auspiciousness.
